

HPD Incident #: 177672806

Name: Anthony Franklin

Date: Friday, November 17, 2006

Time: 3:50 AM

Location: 11038 Westheimer - Walgreens

Offense: Aggravated Robbery

On Friday, November 17, 2006, suspect, Anthony Franklin, entered the Walgreens store located at 11038 Westheimer at approximately 3:50a.m. The suspect asked victim 1 where the gum was located and proceeded to that area of the store. Suspect brought the gum to the store counter and began talking to victim 2, the security guard in the store. Suspect told victim 2 he wanted to give him his number because suspect had a job for victim 2. Suspect asked victim 1 for a paper and pen and wrote down a name and phone number and left it on the counter. Suspect asked victim 2 to come over by where suspect was standing at the counter and victim 2 refused. Suspect then pulled out a large semi-automatic pistol and pointed it to victim 2's head and ordered victim 2 to the ground. Suspect then kicked victim 2 in the head causing a cut to victim 2's lip and breaking victim 2's eye glasses. Suspect ordered victim 1 to remove the money from the store cash register and money from underneath the cash drawer.

Suspect fled the scene across the street and entered the passenger side of a maroon colored SUV type vehicle being driven by an unknown person. The Houston Police Robbery Division developed the identity of suspect, Anthony Franklin, from information provided on the piece of paper left at the scene by suspect. Both victim 1 and victim 2 positively identified Anthony Franklin as the individual who committed the above described offense. Anthony Franklin has been charged with aggravated robbery and is currently wanted by the Houston Police Department.
